The poor Whig voter's Song, When importuned by a horde of Office-holders who offered him gold to cole for the Tory o Van Buren tickel.

They knew that I was poor, And they thought that I was bose; They thought that Pd endure To be covered with disgrace; They thought me of their tribe, Why on filthy fuere dout, So, they offered me a bribe For my vote, boys! vote!

> Oh shame upon my betters, Who would my conscience but But I'll not wear their ferrers. Not I, indeed, not I!

My vote! It is not mine To do with us I will: To easy like pourla to swine. To those wallowers in ill; His my country's due, And I'll give it while I can, To the honest and the true, Live a man, boys, man!

As a fremante and a trust; My dishener none shall quote, When I'm mingled with the dust: And my children, when I'm gone, Small be strengthened by the thought, That their father was not one
